

From the vineyard to the kiddush cup

By GABRIEL GELLER

September 15, 2022, 1:00 pm

Now let's review a classic, old-world estate: J. de Villebois. Established less than two decades ago, this Loire Valley winery produces stellar wines from its Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir estate vineyards. The J. de Villebois Pouilly-Fumé 2021 is an aromatic, crisp, and complex Sauvignon Blanc with an earthy mineral character and refreshing acidity. The perfect combination of attentive growing practices and winemaking skills.